

Marie Antoinette

Marie Antoinette was born in 1755 in Austria and became the Queen of France as the wife of King Louis XVI. She was criticized for her luxurious lifestyle and being out of touch with the people's struggles. During the French Revolution, she was arrested and executed by guillotine in 1793.

Life Before Marriage

Early Life

Marie Antoinette was born in 1755 in Austria and grew up in a royal family. She was the daughter of Empress Maria Theresa and part of the Habsburg dynasty. She spent her childhood in the court of Vienna, where she lived a protected life. Her education focused on music, dance, and learning French, but she didn't learn much about politics or ruling. This luxurious upbringing was one of the things that caused people to prejudice her when she became queen in the future.

Arranged Marriage

At the age of 14, she was sent to France to marry King Louis XVI as part of a political agreement between Austria and France. This marriage marked the beginning of a big change in her life.
